

Supportive Living, INC.

— BRAIN INJURY PROGRAMS —

Health and Laughter: An Evening with Loretta LaRoche to benefit
Supportive Living, Inc.
October 20, 2017

Join us on October 20, 2017 at the Four Points Sheraton in Wakefield, MA, at 6 pm for registration and cocktails, as well as dinner, and a performance by Loretta LaRoche at 7pm. Loretta is the author of Relax! You May Only Have a Few Minutes Left, and is a member of the Mind/Body Medical Center (affiliated with Harvard University) in Boston. An international consultant for over 20 years in the field of stress management via humor, she has spoken to Fortune 500 companies, universities, and medical professionals around the world and her six PBS television specials have all aired nationally to critical acclaim.

Tickets are $125, and proceeds will benefit Supportive Living Inc., which offers residential, health and wellness programs for people living with brain injuries.

Event sponsors include Cummings Foundation, Brookline Bank, Robbins Nest Foundation, and TJX Companies. For more information, including sponsorships, please contact Ruth Crocker at rcrocker.sli@gmail.com.