

SLI Neuro Wellness Program: Summer 2019 Classes

SLI's Neuro Wellness Program classes are designed to help those living with acquired brain injury and other neurological disorders improve their physical, cognitive and social fitness in engaging, supportive environments. To register for any of the classes below, please email info@supportivelivinginc.org or call us at (781) 274-8711.

ADAPTIVE EXERCISE CLASS

JUNE 12TH – AUGUST 16TH

Research shows that exercise is good for both the mind and body, and that survivors of brain injury can continue to improve their physical and cognitive health long after their initial injuries. Each one-hour session in our adaptive exercise class features aerobic exercise to improve cardiovascular health and functional exercise to improve strength and mobility. In this class you will receive one-on-one support to help you work towards your specific fitness goals in a fun, social environment with adaptive equipment such as NuStep trainers, treadmills with harnesses and qualified trainers. $15 fee per class (fee may be negotiable).

Neuro Wellness Center, 7 Oakland St., Lexington | Classes offered Monday-Friday 1:00, 2:00, 3:00 and 4:00pm

Lynch/van Otterloo YMCA, 46 Legs Hill Rd., Marblehead | Classes offered Tuesday, Thursday, Friday 9:00, 10:00 and 11:00am

Center for Balance, Mobility and Wellness, Gordon College, 26 Hull St., Wenham | Classes offered Tuesday, Thursday, Friday 1:00pm

BOXING FOR BALANCE, CORE AND MORE

JUNE 10TH – AUGUST 12TH

Fitness boxing presents an opportunity to increase your heart rate, improve your strength and practice maintaining your balance in a dynamic environment. Our setup of punching bags and a professional instructor in the Neuro Wellness Center is ideal for those looking for a safe and fun way to explore boxing as a fitness opportunity. $10 fee per class.
